HAVAS

London, March 21st—The true reason for Bismarck's resignation is now known; it was not, as at first thought, the result of the Parliamentary elections, but the intermeddling of the Emperor in Home Affairs that decided him to resign. Public feeling, in general, is unfavorable to the new Chancellor, General Caprivi.

Paris, March 24th.—The Constitutional Right in the Chamber of Deputies has re-organised itself and can now count on fifty members.

GALVESTON.

Paris, March 22nd.—In an interviewf Benedetti, who was the ambassador o, France in Berlin when the Franco-German war broke out, said that, in his opinion, the resignation of Bismarck was not a ground of alarm and that the only danger to the peace of Europe would originate with Crispi.

Berlin, March 22th—A rumour is current that Bismarck refuses to accept the Dukedom of Lauenburg and the nomination of, Colonel-General of Cavalry and Field Marshal General offered to him by the Emperor; this report has caused a great sensation. It is added that Herbert Bismarck insists on the acceptance of his resignation.

St. Petersburg, March 22nd.—The Grasdonin says that the resignation of Bismarck will inaugurate a new era of disturbance, of new ideas and of unexpected events which will compel the whole world to be on its guard.

The St. Petersburg Journal says that the resignation does not imply a change in the foreign policy of Germany and that the withdrawal of Bismarck confirms the Emperor's recent pacific declarations.

Madrid, March 22—There are false notes in circulation here to the amount of 500,000 pesetas supposed to have come from Seville.

Berlin, March 23nd—The North German Gazette publishes the eagerly looked for particulars of the resignation of Bismarck who wished to adhere to the Cabinet decree of '52 referring to the relations between Ministers and the Sovereign, and desired to keep his full freedom of action. Relations between the Emperor and his Secretaries of State are, it appears, regulated by this law of '52. It goes on to say that the equanimity with which the retirement of Bismarck has been generally regarded will be shortly succeeded by a feeling of depression when it is seen that the country will be handed over to an arbitrary autocracy. Bismarck, it seems, construed the decree of '52 in accordance with the Prussian Constitution on the point that the President of the Ministry ought to nominate his own Cabinet choosing men of his own political ideas and principles. The Emperor, however, refused to accept this interpretation, and, as Sovereign, se. up the right of nominating his Ministers, who would thus be directly responsible to the Crown and not to the President. In a written communication to Bismarck the Emperor last week explained his opinions on monarchical prerogative and argued that, according to the constitution, the Chancellor's claims were antagonistic to the rights of the Sovereign; he ended by stating his determination to exercise a general absolute power. On Saturday the Emperor received (in pursuance of his probable wish) a hint that Bismarck would resign. On Tuesday the Chancellor sent him a closely-written folio of 20 pages explaining his motives.

Advices from Vienna report the probable retirement of Kalnoky who went in to office on the strength of his personal relations with Bismarck as it appears that the Prussian Cabinet distrusted the relations of the Emperor with the Czar.

St. Petersburg, March 23rd—The students of the University and Agricultural College rose in a serious mutiny yesterday and insisted on the establishment of the liberal rule of 1863, which the authorities refused; five hundred students were arrested. The troops paraded the streets near the University, in the neighborhood of which traffic is quite paralysed.

Rome, March 23—The inundations continue all over the country; the losses are calculated at 4 millions of francs.

The Socialists will present 30 candidates at the coming elections.

Rio de Janeiro, March 23—It is rumoured that the provisional government will annul the decree convoking the Assembly and will continue the Dictatorship for 5 years.

WEST COAST TELEGRAMS

Valparaiso, March 23rd—Señor Correia y Aranjo, the ex-Minister of Brazil, will start to-morrow for Rio by the overland route via Buenos Ayres.

The chances of a Ministerial crisis are increasing on account of the dissensions between the President and the Home and Foreign Secretaries on the questions of the convocation of Congress and the bills prepared by the mixed committee referring to electoral freedom.

Peru, March 23—The Board of Public Credit will pay the interest on the National Debt for the first 3 months of the present year in April.

The Bolsa is worse; Obras closed 36½ cash, National Bank 106½; all stocks depressed; few sales; import business very dull; discounts difficult at ten per cent for good paper.

THE MERCHANT'S PETITION AND MINISTER PACHECO'S ANSWER.

His Excellency President Juarez received the other day a petition of bankers and merchants of this city, urging the Government to follow the salutary example of everyone in town at this moment and pursue a policy of rigid economy. The petition, which is preceded by a disquisition on the advantages of economy and the evil effects of the terrible speculation and inflation of a few months ago, embodies the following plan:—

1.—That so long as the notes of the Free Banks are not convertible at sight, His Excellency must oppose in a decided manner any new issue of paper money and use his influence with the Provincial Government of Buenos Aires, with a view to suspend fresh issues of Cedulas.

2nd. That the law ordering 58 millions to be withdrawn from paper circution be immediately carried out and the notes burned accord ng to law.

3rd. That the Executive determin, ae date on and after which the free-banks must convert their notes.

4th. That the concessions of guaranteed railways and other similar concessions, implying a burthen to the State, and not yet definitely granted, be annulled.

5th. That every possible economy be made in the Budget.

These measures, the petitioners stated would place the State on the right road and strengthen the wavering credit of the country.

The whole market had been awaiting with breathless anxiety an answer to the above petition, expecting a radical change in the financial policy pursued up to present. The President's answer appeared last night. Minister Pacheco speaks for him in a forcible and frank style, showing that all the good advice of the bankers and merchants is much appreciated, but fails to throw any fresh light on the subject. All that the merchants beg, the Government has carried out already or endeavoured to put in execution.

The following is the answer:—

Buenos Ayres, March 24th 1890.

Gentlemen,

The President of the Republic has decided to answer in writing the petition that you handed in the name of the commercial community of this capital, although at the moment of presentation H. E. had the honor of explaining to you verbally his views on the matter.

The Executive Power has been constantly engaged in the study and execution of measures to alleviate the evils of the economic situation, animated with the same spirit that led the Government to place at the disposal of the market all the resources of the Treasury.

The petition you presented and to which the President has given his special attention embodies requests and indications which the Executive Power had already tried in anticipation.

After a study of the budget of expenses, it ordered important suppressions, and the suspension of the Public Works not yet begun at the end of 1889.

The expenses voted in special laws have been reduced, all the railway companies granted with guarantee of the nation or entailing a burden on the treasury have been suspended till further notice. The repeal of contracts already made, but null and void owing to non compliance of concessionaires, requires a serious study, as legal contracts are hereby affected that must be respected, not only for the sake of the credit of the Government, but also because law and duty impose natural obligations.

In your petition you point to the necessity of using influence with the Government of the province of Buenos Byres to suspend the issue of Cedulas of the Mortgage Bank of the province. I must inform you that the President of the Republic aware of the disturbances arising from unlimited issues of that class of bonds, had already taken in hand the matter.

You also point to the fact of selling at low prices, imposing thereby great losses on the holders, and forming the demand for gold or exchange to meet their service in foreign markets where the bulk of that stock is held. It was on this account that the issue of the National Mortgage Bank was stopped and the circumstances of the case were impressed on the Governor of the province of Buenos Ayres; and now, in accordance with your petition, the National Government will renew these acts in the profound hope that they will result favourably and fitly for the general advantage.

The law ordering the withdrawal from circulation of fifty-eight millions of dollars originated with the Executive and the decree was issued, by arrangement with the National Bank, for its strict and vigorous execution; in spite, nevertheless, of the efforts of the Government, anxious naturally to carry into execution its own decrees, it has been found impossible to attain the desired object for reasons well known to the whole country. The scarcity of notes has entailed a shrinkage of banking discounts and has paralysed trade in the Interior, and if money be scarce for discounts, how can there be expediency in aggravating the situation by withdrawing them altogether?

The Executive Power hopes to carry out this law when the position of the market is favorable to such an operation; it also perseveres in its determination not to authorize any more issues of banknotes and will spare no sacrifice to maintain that policy.

The petition of the commercial body finally begs that a date be fixed for the conversion of notes.

This is a question with many issues, of a transcendental importance that cannot escape attention. It would be first necessary to improve the present situation by removing the many difficulties that surround it; a series of measures are needed to prepare the country for such a radical transformation; finally, it is indispensible to rely on sufficient gold resources not to injure interests by official acts, the results of which are difficult to foresee.

The Government is also desirous to return to conversion, but must at present limit its action to what is feasible and expedient; in other words, to mitigate the effects arising from too great a consumption of capital in a short time, from an exaggeration of movable and real-estate values, and from an abuse of credit.

The return to conversion is a programme of which the Government will not lose sight and will carry out when it considers it feasible.

Finally, the commercial community of the country at large may remain assured that the Government is able to fillit mission, is aware of its responsibility, and quite able to cope with all the emergencies of the economic situation.

I have the honor of assuring you of my high consideration, etc.

W. Pacheco.

THE REDUCTION.

Public opinion has hailed with satisfaction the reduction in the budget and the suspension of the railway guarantees granted by Congress last year. The wording of the Government decrees in this respect is worth studying, for care is taken to inform the public that the reduction of 18 millions in the budget has been resolved on, not that the treasury is in straitened circumstances, but as a timely measure to meet possible contingencies in the near future; we might add that but for the clamor of the press it is very doubtful if any such sweeping economy would have been decreed. The reduction is a sop to Cerberus—public opinion.

The Minister of Finance availed of the opportunity to cut down expenses in a radical manner, and the facility with which he has performed this operation to the amount of eighteen millions is perhaps one of the most eloquent proofs of the extravagance with which the Budget was originally drawn up. We may say that the 18 millions' reduction represents, strictly speaking, unnecessary expenditure, and such a phenomenal amount in a budget of, say, 70 millions is a sorry reflection on the loose manner in which the Government handles the monies of the people. To-day we find out that in spite of the enormous depreciation of the currency since the budget was framed, say June 1889, the Government can get along with 52 millions instead of 70 millions.

Last year it was thought that the Government and the country could jog along, no matter how great the depreciation of paper money. That belief grew out of a superficial study of the finances of the previous two or three years; it was agreed that if the premium rose revenue would rise "pari passu;" the men in Government never dreamt that a crisis of the present proportions would burst over the market, that imports and revenue would fall off, and that gold, meantime, would soar to the skies. The country is now in the midst of that process and the Government at last is beginning to feel the pinch of misery also.

The Argentine Government must meet every year obligations to the amount of at least 15 million gold dollars; this paltry sum of three millions sterling makes up to-day at present rate of exchange over 38½ millions of paper dollars. If the revenue (in paper) of the Government continued to advance, as in previous years, and that advance made up for the enormous difference created by the fall in the value of the currency, the financial situation of the Minister of Finance would not excite any anxiety; but we find that the revenue in paper returns merely keeps up to the figure of 1889; meantime, gold in 1889 stood at an average of 60 per cent premium, today it stands at 150 to 160 per cent. Here is the fix that in reality has led to the reduction in this year's budget.

The results of all this blundering we now see in a reduced Budget of 52 millions, out of which 38 millions must be taken (if gold keeps at present level during the year) for loan service alone. After payment of the service of the debt, there would remain only 14 millions for the other expenses of the Government. It is idle to argue against this that the Government have deposited in Europe all the gold necessary for the service; this does not alter the main point. In the statistical world a country's finances, rather a Government's financial situation, is pronounced critical when the service on the debt absorbs 50 o/o of the annual budget.

Optimists will say that the cash assets of the Government are enormous; that the Minister of Finance has eighty millions paper and 24 millions gold deposited in the National Bank in this city. If we were told that this fabulous amount is deposited in the private banks, we should acknowledge the value of such assets; but deposited as they are in the National Bank they are not available, for it is well-known that that bank has neither the gold nor the paper. These cash assets will be badly wanted some fine day, to check a panic or relieve great pressure on the Treasury, and that day the Minister will deplore the laxity that has created the present state of affairs with all its dismal forebodings. Meantime the whole market applauds the Minister for his radical measures of retrenchment, and hopes that it may not be too late, for we are gliding down at a tremendous pace.

Our Mails.

BISMARCK'S RETIREMENT.

THE LABOR CONFERENCE.

London, Feb. 27th

In the House of Commons yesterday, the Poor Law Guardians (Ireland) Bill, the principal provision of which is the extension of the Ballot Act to the election of guardians, was read a second time.

All the Powers who were originally consulted having signified their adhesion to the German Emperor's proposal for a Labour Conference, the formal invitations have been issued. March 15 has been fixed as the date of the first meeting of the delegates.

Sir William Harcourt, addressing a great meeting of Gladstonian Liberals at Bath last night, dwelt at considerable length on the report of the Parnell Commission, contending that recent speeches had made it clear that members of the Government had countenanced the slanderous attacks on Mr. Parnell and other Irish members.

Ashman, the fireman who was seriously injured in the late Llanerch colliery disaster, was further examined at the official inquiry which is being conducted at Pontypool. After stating that he inspected the workings shortly before the explosion, he reiterated his opinion that naked lights might be used with safety. So strongly was this his view that he allowed his own relations to be employed in the mine, and had lost three sons, a son-in-law, a grandson, and a brother-in-law.

Elizabeth Roberts, a child under the age of ten, was charged at Chester with attempting to poison a young woman to whom her father, a widower, was engaged to be married. It appeared that the accused and another little girl had been in the habit of "playing at Mrs. Maybrick." The magistrates ordered her to be detained in an industrial school until she was sixteen.

Mr. Glover's Destiny won the Staffordshire Hurdle Handicap at the Dunstall Park Meeting, Mr. Lane's Cambalu the Apsley Hunters' Hurdle Plate, and Mr. Abingston's Richard Rawe the Compton Maiden Hunters' Hurdle Plate.

After opening with steadiness, the Stock Markets relapsed in some cases. English and American railways closed flat, while Grand Trunks improved. Foreign Government bonds maintained an advance up to the last, and the leading South American issues showed the chief recovery. Consols fell 1-16 to ⅛ per cent.

A "communique" from Berlin to a semi-officially inspired Hamburg journal like the Hamburger Nachrichten is not to be ignored; but when this "communique," printed in large type, deals with so momentous an event as the possible retirement of Prince Bismarck from his position as Chancellor of the Empire, nothing would be more natural than that a sensation should be produced in the press and that a fall in prices would ensue on the Bourse.

Strange to say, the Bourse this (Wednesday) morning somewhat recovered from yesterday's dulness, and the Berlin evening papers scarcely do more than reproduce the ominous words, originally printed in thick sable relief, which I subjoin:—

"We hear from a trustworthy source that the question of Prince Bismarck's resignation of his position in the Prussian Ministry of State, and of his post as Chancellor of the Empire, has been ventilated indeed; but the retirement of the "First" has been, for the present, postponed. Out of regard to the issue of the elections the Chancellor of the Empire has deferred his intentions as to his withdrawal from active work."

I pointed out to you some days ago, that both Prince Bismarck's state of health and his inability to endorse, as a man of mature age, all the enthusiastic plans cherished by Kaiser Wilhelm rendered it highly probable that more changes than that of the Chancellor's retirement from Prussian domestic business would before long surprise the world. The fact is that it would seem that the Kaiser contemplates a variety of reforms, and that he is following the bent of his own mind, or consulting men of a younger generation than that of Prince Bismarck.

Dr. Nintzpeter, the original promoter of social reforms on the present scale, starts from a theoretical point of view totally opposed to that of the German Chancellor, who cannot even follow the lead of capitalists and employers of labor like Count Douglas, Herr Krupp, or Baron Von Stumm.

The Imperial educational reforms have only been hinted at in the recent Order referring to the Military Academies; but I possess information according to which his Majesty contemplates the introduction of radical alterations in this field which will entirely change the "curriculum" of German gymnasiums to that of public schools in the English sense.

The new state of affairs in the Imperial Parliament will also exercise an influence on domestic politics in this country that people abroad do not seem yet to realise.

I repeat again what I stated some days ago, that Herr von Bottticher—the most capable of the modern German Cabinet of Ministers—stands the best chance of being Prince Bismarck's successor when he formally renounces his appointments, and places them in the hands of his Sovereign.

The issue of the recent elections by which the Socialists have gained five hundred thousand, and the much-scorned Liberals two hundred thousand, while the Government Cartell has lost no less than a million of votes, is not due to mere chance. The cup of taunts and invective forced to the lips of Liberals in and out of Parliament, and in the columns of the inspired Press, had overflowed, and the people have taken their revenge. What is more, this revenge will be doubly uncompromising in the "second ballots" when the Liberals will do nothing to assist the Conservatives even at the risk of contributing to Socialist successes. The New Parliament will give the Government many a hard nut to crack.

Kaiser Wilhelm presided at the meeting of the State Council held to-day, when business of some moment was transacted.

Berlin, Feb. 26th.

The Powers have signified their adhesion to the Emperor William's proposal for an International Labor Conference, the formal invitations were dispatched from this capital yesterday.

The date of the assembling of the Conference is fixed for March 15.

Berlin, Feb. 26 (Later)

A telegram from Zwickau, Saxony, announces that the joint committee of mine owners and men at that place has received from the official Mining Department of Freiberg a reply declining the proposal that it should be recognized as the legal representative of the men in negotiations regarding the wages question and the length of the working day.

Brussels, Feb. 26.

In the Senate to day Prince de Chimay, Minister for Foreign Affairs, replied to the motion made yesterday by M. Van Put, who asked that the Belgian delegates to the Berlin Labour Conference should give expression to the desire of Belgium for a general disarmament.

The Minister declared that, while applauding the generous initiative taken by the German Emperor, and accepting his invitation with alacrity, the Belgian Government did not conceal from itself the difficulties of the task before the conference. Prince de Chimay continued, "We have reservations to make, and, moreover, we have not received the programme of the conference. As to the instructions to be given to our representatives at the conference, we cannot enter into any explanations".

M. Baiisaux, of the Left, approved the attitude of the Government, and said that it was not within Belgium's province to take a preponderant role in the Berlin Conference, as M. Van Put appeared to wish.

M. Van Put regretted the rebuff with which his proposal had been met, to which M. Beernaert, the Premier, replied: "There is no rebuff. We cannot give a decision at present." The subject then dropped.

Berne, Feb. 26th.

The Federal Council will not appoint delegates to the Berlin Labour Conference until it has received the programme of the questions to be discussed, and is thus enabled to select the representatives best fitted to fulfil the mission entrusted to them.

Colonge, Feb. 26.

The Volkszeitung this evening announces that a strike commenced to-day among the men employed at the Deimelsberg and Johann pits, near Steele.

PARIS LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

Paris, Feb. 19.

The stroke for the Crown by the Duc d'Orleans has proved only a sword thrust in the water. His rush into France, disguised in a wig and an Ulster, has fully demonstrated that the cause he symbolises and that he was got up to represent has no hold on the country. And, after trotting out the whole strength of the Orleanist company, the heir-pretender will be sent back to his parents, like a naughty schoolboy retained some days in confinement.

Outside the Duke's own narrow political circle, the public displayed humorous contempt and the most stolid indifference towards his little game. At no time was it taken "au serieux." The authorities while not losing sight of the main chance, affected to view the comedy with subdued gravity. The Republicans, whom it was expected would demand at least the Duke's head and cover him with abuse, gently quizzed him; left him fully in the hands of a tavern-keeper for supplies, in those of his intimate friends for consolation, and between four walls for security. In a few days, if M. Carnot has the time and the Orleanists abstain from manifestation follies, the Prince may be liberated or sent to Clairvaux or Peronne Penitentiary for a brief period, the better to impress on his boyish mind what he may expect if he recommences.

Of course, save for form's sake, no one believes that the Duke came to Paris because the army-patriotic spirit moved him. A prince reared as he has been in the midst of cultured, experienced and interested relatives, was well aware that the exile law of 1886, and whose voting is not unjustified, unfortunately by his cat's-pawism, not only debarred his entrance into France, but also—and this fact he keeps under his hat—excluded him from "serving either in the army or navy" in any capacity. If he was so dominated with the envy to become an ordinary conscript, a simple private soldier, he has only to send a petition by post to President Carnot, or to the Minister of War, declaring—like an Austrian arch-duke or an ex-ruler of Bulgaria—that he abjured all pretensions to the throne of France—that he was not and never would be a pretender—that he wished to be considered simply as a Frenchman, equal to his co-citizens—that he claimed only his place in the Gallic family and the right to shed his blood, as all conscripts, in the defence of his country. Had he so prayed, his petition would be granted, and he might now be wearing a pair of red pantaloons, exercising his limbs at the goose-step, and graduating for corporal stripes. But the Prince was coached to act otherwise; not as an humble citizen respectful of the law, but that of a prince of a personage outside of the common rules of public correctness, and arrogating to himself the right to brave, or to "ruser" with the law.

France did not want him as a saviour or as the pilot engine of his papa. The country is not torn by anarchy, nor occupied by a foreigner; to lay the one, and to expel the other was the glorious work of Henry IV.—under whose name the Duc d'Orleans tries to niche and nestle. The latter's conduct was calculated to spring the first and bring about the second. When the late Prince Imperial desired to be enrolled a "bold soger boy," he instructed his political agent, M. Rouher, in 1878, to act for him. That gentleman called at the Mayoralty, where the Prince had to be registered; had his name inscribed, and when the drawing for the conscripts came off the Prince Imperial was fated to be enrolled. But the Council of Revision applied the regulation, as if to an ordinary case, turned the difficulty, and the Prince Imperial was exempted from military service, he being "the only son and the support of a widowed mother." The Duc d'Orleans might have instructed the family agent here, M. Bocher, to make a parallel application; or the duke could have done so himself at the nearest French Consulate. But then, that would be patriotism without the "reclame", the tam-tam and the big drum.

Buenos Ayres may likely be able to throw some light on the following. Towards the close of the year 1887, a catching prospectus was addressed to the French painters, drawing their attention to Exhibitions to be held the following year, in connection with your city and Montevideo. The circular represented the opportunity as not only unrivalled for the artists to dispose of their works, but for establishing a taste for French art, over the schools of Italy and Belgium. The circular further stated that on the demand of the French Minister Plenipotentiary, the Argentine Government had consented to admit all French works of art destined for the exhibition in question, to enter duty free—up to a limited date.

The prospectus was emblazoned with a letter head, in accord with the Exhibition. It set forth the number of an office room in the Palace of Industry, Champs Elysées, where the exhibits were to be deposited, and that M. Bedberg, Consul and banker, in Paris, would remit to the artists the proceeds of their pictures when disposed of. Upwards of 867 paintings and works of art were in due course forwarded to the Palace of Industry to be packed up and exported to Buenos Ayres. The artists themselves defrayed the expenses of packing. The stamp of the French Ministry of Public Instruction and Fine Arts was marked on many of the cases, till the organizers were ordered to desist from so identifying the State with their enterprise.

About 250 artists contributed the 867 exhibits. The latter were first to be arranged as a picture gallery and thrown open to a paying public. On the close of the show the paintings would be sold at public auction, and the proceeds, along with the receipts, duly handed over after usual deductions, to M. Benberg.

The director of this enterprise sailed for Buenos Aires with the pictures. On arriving he deluged the contributors with letters deploring the unexpected difficulties he was encountering, etc. It appears that the picture show came off, as a catalogue was printed. Since, the 250 artists have heard nothing more of their paintings, of the show receipts, nor of sale products. M. Benberg, having been waited upon, declared he never received a single penny connected with the matter. A committee of the 250 artists has been formed to clear up the mystery. Such is their story.

When the Republican Deputies were quashing the elections of Boulangists, apparently because they were Boulangists, cool observers told the Deputies they were acting unwisely and rather abusing their great majority. To this sagacious counsel the adder's ear was turned. Of the six Boulangist elections in October last thus broken, affecting Paris and the suburbs, the voters have all just re-elected the same candidates. No matter how the suffrage verdict may be viewed, the fact is disagreeable for the Government. It is earnestly to be hoped that the Boulangist boom, which was sinking into limbo, is not going to be revived by the want of tact and the absence of reflection on the part of he Chamber. There can be no exhibition before ten years at least, to impose a truce between fratricidal patriots. The Monarchists have not disarmed; and the Republicans have not concentrated. The former have declared that henceforth they will back every candidate—Boulangist, Socialist, or Anarchist—whose plank is death to the present regime. That is lamentable statesmanship.

France can not stand this chronic home knocking about. She requires a solid tranquility to regularize her finances, as she is really living on borrowed money. That is, she runs into debt, according to M. Clemenceau's journal, at the rate of 300 to 500 million francs annually, by flying Treasury Bills, and then wipes them out by periodic loans: that is she adds a million or so to the National debt and its interest—some 30 or 40 million fr. to the annual taxation. This burning the candle at both ends has its fixed limit. Since Italy has joined the Triple Alliance—become as it were the future left wing of the German national army—French journals take pleasure in financially writing down Italy, but whose funds, nevertheless, keep respectably up; her Fives are over 90, and French Threes are only over 87. Italy is relatively a poor country as compared with England and France; she feels, naturally, the strain on her resources for bloated armaments heavier, but she finds her present position to be cheaper than were she to remain isolated. France is commencing to be seriously pinched on her side also; and if Italy be suffering, the lesson has its moral for France.

The Jeanne d'Arc boom is being well maintained. Mgr. Pagis, Bishop of Verdun, is crusading France to collect funds for erecting a national monument for the Maid of Orleans. The Bishop has just preached at the Madeleine in favour of his project, the erection of the monument at Vaucouleurs, although the Bishop of St. Die is on the subscription path since several years to harvest funds to complete his national monument church to be dedicated to Joan, at Domremy, her native village. It is to be hoped "ceci ne tuera pas cela." Mgr. Pagis in his sermon said that Joan, "after completing her work on earth, could not enter heaven as an ordinary mortal; it was necessary she should there return through martyrdom." After his sermon the worthy bishop makes the collection himself.

The Colonial Congress, which has commenced its general sittings, after committee examination of the several questions, is a private body, composed of competent and experienced men, not officials. They seem to be doing their task in a practical and independent style, and many of their suggestions—that I shall touch upon in future letters—must be grappled with by the Legislature. They urge that such Frenchified colonies as Martinique, Guadaloup, etc., be assimilated to the mother country as simple departments; that the other colonies be dealt with, not according to a uniform rule, but following their peculiar merits. Cochin China is admitted to have been ruined by Tonkin; there is nothing clear in the future of African possessions, unless they be aided by grants of money—what France cannot do. If the products of Tunis be not allowed to enter France free, like those of Algeria, that "take" will remain a fiasco. It is suggested to create an immense arsenal at Diego, Suarez Bay, in Madagascar; to fortify Obock; and, above all, to arm Cheik, Said, and so silence the English island of Perim, in the Red Sea. Cannons, in place of colonists.

Railway Items

The question of the sale of the Western Railway was the general topic yesterday, and increased interest was manifested in the attitude of the La Plata Government, owing to the news published by the Diario in the evening. It must be borne in mind that the Censor, which may be cousidered the mouth piece of the provincial executive urges Governor Paz to close with Messrs S. B. Hale's offer of 35 millions gold, while the Committee of accountants named by H. E. to throw some more light on the subject, show that if the business is concluded, the Province is simply throwing away the railway. The Committee, with a zeal that may be explained by the contagion which has seized everyone of airing views on the situation, ascribe the smallness of the offer to the influence of the present financial crisis, and deem it a good thing to level an attack on British capitalists. Stripping the report of the committee of its appreciations and allusions, we infer that the railway is worth 44 millions gold, that is, 34 millions actual value plus 30 per cent as right of exploitation. In the valuation of the railway they include the assessed value of the lands appertaining to the line, which value reduced to a gold basis at the rate of 200 percent, was actually set down at more that 11½ millions dollars gold. The committee have now altered their first valuation which, we presume, by the light of the crisis must have appeared somewhat exaggerated. The assessed value of the railway lands now stands at 6,072,719.05 dollars gold (the calcula ion having been made at the rate of 250 per cent). The alteration of this item involved an entire modification of the estimates which are now:

	$ gold
Lands	6,072,719·05
Lines and rolling-stock.	22,390,422·61
30 per cent. (right of working)	8,538,942·50
	37,002,084·16

Taking off the 30 per cent super-added as right of exportation, the value of the Railway is 28,463,141·66 dollars. So that in reality Messrs. S. B. Hale and Co. have offered 6,536,858·34 dollars gold over the officially acknowledged value of the Railway.

Now, the Diario of last evening starts the rumour that Governor Paz is trying to temporize, that he will call for new bids, and finally that Messrs Tornquist and Co. have offered 40 millions gold for 40 years' lease of the railway, with obligation to sink 10 millions gold in rolling-stock and other improvements, the Government granting a guarantee on the returns. Another rumour was circulated and then denied that Messrs Bemberg and Company had offered 50 millions gold. On the Bolsa it was confidently stated that the Governor would call for fresh bids. However we are all enveloped in an atmosphere of glorious uncertainty and the unexpected may happen in this as in other things.

The Provincial Engineers' Department are at present drawing up the bases for a contract with Mr. Pablo Gorostiaga for the construction of an extensive network of tramways from La Plata to Necochea, Gen. Villegas, Trenquelauquen and Tres Arroyos; also the bases for a similar contract with Messrs. Ballesteros and Co.

Railway inspectors are rapidly becoming as lucky as editors in withstanding "denuncias". Engineer Venecia was some time ago publicly charged by Messrs. Peralta and Sanchez jun. of neglect of duty and other "irregularidades". The engineer called for an inquiry, the result of which has been his acquittal.

Dr. Araoz yesterday received a polite note from Messrs Rincioni and Fronceschi congratulating him on the excellent management of the Andine Railway since he took it over.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The week opened yesterday as fine as a peacock. Gold bowed gracefully a few points, but looks in a very uncertain mood. For a wonder, no more plans, plots, or proposals for Heal(y)ing the crisis made their appearance, and the public breathed more freely.

The Rowing Club's Regatta at the Tigre to-day ought to attract a crowd, as the weather promises to be the correct thing; but the rival attractions of the Southern Railway's Athletic Sports and Picnic are great, very great, and will leave the British community in the same frame of mind as that dashing gentleman Captain Macheath when he sings. "How happy could I be with either, were t'other dear charmer away."

Although there were no races, the attendance at the Fronton Nacional on Sunday was very meagre indeed, due to a very poor performance being presented. The first match, Recondo and Garmendia v. Brau and Osoro, was very hotly contested, the former just getting the verdict by an ace, all playing well up to the finish. The second match, however, Elicegui and Uranga v. Portal and Larralde, was colourless, owing Portal and Larralde, was colourless, owing to the magnificent play of Larralde, the violent "saques" of Portal, and the inability of Uranga to help his partner. From the beginning Portal took the lead, and, playing with unrelenting vigour, soon put himself in 40 to 19. At this point Elicegui began to show most prominently, and, unaided, put on 11 aces almost consecutively. It was the last spurt, as Portal ran home an easy winner by 16 aces in 50 up. To-day the game arranged is Eliceguı and Larralde v. Portal and Uranga, in which, if Larralde is in as good form as on Sunday, the "revanche" should prove a good thing for Eliceguı.

On Wednesday (to-morrow) there will be an organ recital in the Anglican Church of St. John, at 8.30 p.m., by Mr E. Frank Barnes, the organist of the church. The following is the programme:—

Grand chorus	Guilmant.
Andante in G	Batiste.
Sonata No. 3	Mendelssohn.
Barcarolle	Bennett.
Offertoire in D	Batiste.
Berceuse	Gritton.
Postlude	LefebureWely.

We have no doubt that the well-known abilities of Mr. Barnes will fill the church, and we would therefore recommend those who wish to hear him to attend the usual evening service at 8 p.m. All the seats are free.

The Annual Athletic Sports of the Flores Collegiate School will be held Easter Monday (as per advertisement) on the Palermo Cricket ground, kindly lent for the occasion by the B.A.C.C. They promise to be of unusual interest, as the Minister of Public Instruction has taken them under his patronage, and has consented to distribute the prizes to the successful competitors. Already many valuable prizes have been promised, and the whole arrangements are being helped by several of our leading Athletes. We hear that the Revd. J.H. Gybbon Spilsbury is determined to make the meeting a success.

Those fond of comic opera well played and sung should pay a visit to the little Doria Thratre in the Calle Rivadavia. The performance of "Donna Juanita" on Sunday was simply excellent, and truly admirable were the impersonations of the title role, the Governor and the Alcalde, the latter being played by a gentleman who presented a strong resemblance both in face and method to the pet of the London Mashers, Arthur Roberts. The female chorus was good, one noticeable feature being that the average age was probably 15 years less than that of any other Company in town.

The well-known steamer Heliades arrives here to-day and among her passengers is Miss Margaret Webster, a well-known pianiste, from Liverpool. Miss Webster, who has been playing in private circles in Montevideo, intends to place her professional abilities at the disposal of all musical Buenos Aireans.

Some evil-tongues are spreading a report that Port-Prefect, Don Carlos Mansilla has resigned, or is going to resign. We are glad to see that the official organ contradicts this idle report. There could be no better man than the popular and gallant port-Captain Mansilla to look after the ports and coast of the Republic. He has his eye on everything maritime and his experience is unrivalled.

It was a case of torrents in our eyes and mountains in our throat yesterday when we learned that Rosita de la Plata had departed from amongst us. She took pass

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE
Advice to Invalids.—If you wish to obtain quiet refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary achings of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by D. J. Collis Brown, (late Army Medical Staff), to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.
CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis, Asthma.
CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.
CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms.
CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russel Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the widespread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan; but all over the East. As a remedy for general utility, we must question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are so sorry to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances "ad infinitum" of the extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a sedative that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a deliberate Breach of Faith on the part of the Chemist to prescribe and Patient alike. We are, Sir, faithfully yours, Symes and Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. To His Excellency the Viceroy's Chemists.
Caution.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. Page Wood stated that Dr J. Collis Browne, was, undoubtedly, the Inventor of Chlorodine; that the story of the defendant Freeman was deliberately untrue, which he regretted to say, had been sworn to,—See "The Times," July 13, 1864.
Sold in bottles at 1s. 1 1/2d., 2s. 9d., 4s. 6d., and 11s. each. None is genuine without the words "Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne" on the Government stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
Caution.—Beware of Piracy and Imitations.

We take the following from our Montevidean exchanges:—

"On account of so many petitions received by the Edificadora de Montevideo for small houses in the Reducto, it has been resolved to proceed at once to build upon the lands possessed by the society in Calles Marmaraja and Cunapiru. Sr. Carlos J. Arrue has been appointed "procurador" to the society.

"The commercial judge, Dr. Garzon, has declared the bankruptcy of Roquero Brothers to be fraudulent and has passed the proceedings to the Criminal department.

"We read in a contemporary that the idea of erecting a new and more commodious building for the Bolsa is again coming to the front, and that a prominent broksr is forming a syndicate to finance the scheme. We presume by this that the proposition to convert the San Felipe Theatre into a Bolsa has been abandoned."

The s.s. Attivita left Genoa on 21st inst. for the Plate with 300 passengers and 3000 tons cargo.

The s.s. Bellendan arrived in Montevideo yesterday with 3868 tons of cargo for this port; she comes up on Wednesday.

Messrs Collet and Llambi, well-known auctioneers, sold yesterday the house property Calle Alberti 140, between Victoria and Almirante Brown, measuring 600 square yards, for 25,000 m/n or say 42 dollars per square yard, buyer Mr. Garcia y Gonzalez.

The Amigo del Pueblo announces that the Entre Rios camps are in the most flourishing state, cattle fat and sheep in good condition and free from scab. Estancieros are dividing up their camps into paddocks, so as to enable them to classify animals, the first sign of a general tendency to refine the class and breeding. An estancia property near General Ramirez station has changed hands at the rate of eighty thousand national dollars per league.

Advices from the Santa Fé colonies show that the millers are now trying as hard to get rid of their last year's flour as a few months ago they were reluctant to sell. The new wheat crop is the cause of it is, yet in spite of the tremendous fall in flour, bakers refuse to come down a peg in their prices.

It was said to-day that cables had been received from Rio announcing a further fall in the Rio exchange rate, which is now quoted at 22d per thousand reis on London. Sovereigns are worth 10,800 reis.

The Primitiva sack and bag manufacturing company have issued a further call on their shares, being the fifth of ten per cent payable up to the 31st instant.

The Sunday auction-list yesterday dwindled down to two or three sales of little importance. Risso and Patron sold two sites in Calle Serrano, between 1st and 2nd Paraguay, upset price 5 dollars per square yard, at 6.95 and 7 dols.; corner lot, Calle Thames and 65 D, 16x34 yards at 7½ dols. Auctioneer C. Massini sold for account of the Constructora de Flores several building lots in Calle Corrientes and Serrano, beyond Ministro Ingles, at from 4.40 to 12.70 m/n per square yard; buyers, Messrs. Quemada, Etcheverri, Dr Torres, Jose Seivera, Dr Escalada, F Acuso, A Defino, Scheinez, J Fachela, J Bua, V Ferreyra, E Delfino, N Misos, Littorr, J Muñez, C Gimiuez, F Mendia, C Marini, P Naricelli, E Colonelle, C Torrano. Parodi and others.

Messrs. Luis Godoy and Co. sold yesterday a house in San Jose de Flores, Calle Circunvalacion, between Lavalle and Progreso, for 12,000 m/n. Mr. C. Bonorino was the buyer.

We have received the following from Mr. F. Thompson Groom, the courteous purser of the Royal Mail s.s. Magdalena:

"Montevideo, March 22, 1890.

"To the Editor of the STANDARD,—

"Sir.—

"This ship arrived here at 1.45 p.m. to day, having previously called off Flores, as per instructions received at Rio Janeiro, but on arriving there, at 10 a.m., was (by signal) ordered to Montevideo.

"The Magdalena brings for Buenos Aires 2319 packages of cargo, 374 tons measurement and 79 tons weight, one package of silver value £10, one parcel sovereigns (from Rio) value £15, and 50 first-class, 30 second-class and 34 third-class, making in all a total of 114 passengers.

"For Rosario, 68 packages of cargo—40 tons.

"I append dates of arriving and departure from the various ports touched at 'en route,' viz.:—

	Arrival	Departure
Southampton	—	Feb. 1
Vigo	Mar. 1	Mar. 1
Lisbon	" 2	" 3
St. Vincent	" 8	" 8
Pernambuco	" 13	" 13
Bahia	" 14	" 15
Rio	" 17	" 18

"From Pernambuco to Rio quickest time on record made, viz., 24h. 30min. From Southampton to Rio fine weather was experienced: from Rio to Montevideo thick weather, hard squalls, heavy rain and strong winds. In consequence of the weather being thick, the run from Rio to Flores was much delayed.

"To land at Montevideo, the Magdalena brings 1532 packages of cargo, 164 tons measurement and 64 tons weight; 15 first-class, two second-class and seven third-class passengers, making a total of 24 passengers.

"At 3 p.m. received visit and ordered back to Flores to land passengers and mails.

"Papers will go up to-night, I expect.

"Yours faithfully,

"F. THOMPSON GROOM, Purser."

Captain J. C. Kelderup, of the Norwegian barque Concordia, was welcomed on 'Change to-day. The gallant skipper has been engaged in the River Plate trade for the last 20 years; he was the first to sail up the Riachuelo to the Spinetto barraca many years ago. This barque is now lying at anchor in front of the Barraca Miguelburu, and will leave next month for Magdalena and Rio.

The s.s. Zaandam, which arrived on Saturday morning at Montevideo, was expected here to-day. She has on board a lot of 33 animals, consisting of cows, rams, pigs and horses, as well as the following articles, which will be exhibited at the Sociedad Rural Exhibition in April, 1890: One case of Viteine tobacco samples, 3 cases of photographs, four cases Vitrine, two cases beer, three cases empty bottles, three cases cheese and butter colour, one case glass instruments, four cases straw-paper, one case cheese, one case biscuits, one box rice-cakes, two cases rice samples, 36 packages agricultural instruments, six cases Vitrine, empty jugs, etc., one case biscuits.

Maximo Gowland,

Auctioneer

The undersigned will, on Wednesday, 26th march at two o'clock p.m., sell at his auction Mart, calle Bolivar 161, by public auction, to the highest bidder, and for account of whom it may concern, with the intervention of Mr. Philip Dorman, Lloyd's agent, the hull and cargo of the property of the executors of the late Thomas A. Walker, contractor of the "Maderc Port Works" of this capital.

The "Inez" lies sunk in the outer roads of this port, about 7 miles from the shore, and her cargo consists of about 400 tons of rough stone in blocks of various weights. She lies upright, and her hull, according to the latest report from the divers, has suffered no damage whatever, and her engines are in perfect condition, only requiring cleaning when raised.

The tug "Inez" was built some nine months since, and is 320 tons gross and 178 register. Her dimensions are as follows, viz: 152 feet long over all, 26ft2 beam, and 8 feet 3 hold. Her engines of 300 indicated horse power, are built by Fleming and Ferguson, of Paisley, Scotland, being quadruple expansion. She is schooner rigged, and her coast in England last year was over £7,000 stg.

The above steam lighter will be sold "al contado y sin reclamo," and all further particulars can be obtained from the auctioneer.

MAXIMO GOWLAND

Auctioneer,

Will sell at his auction mart

CALLE BOLIVAR 161

On Wednesday, 26th March

AT 2.30 p.m.

For account of whom it may concern, and with the intervention of Mr. Philip Dorman, Lloyd's Agent:

The hull of the steam lighter SOPHIA

"Sophia," the property of the executors of the late Mr. Thomas A Walker, contractor of the "Madero Port Works" of this capital. The steam-lighter "Sophia" lies under water at a distance of about 15 miles from this port" in mid river. Her cargo, which consisted of stone, has already been taken out, and according to the last accounts from the divers who went off her hull is in perfect condition and her engines are intact, only requiring cleaning up.

The "Sophia," which is 310 tons gross and 176 registered, was built in 1889, is 150 feet long over all, 26 feet beam and 8 feet hold. Her engines are quadruple expansion, by Fleming & Ferguson of Paisley, Scotland, with 300 indicated horse power. She is schooner rigged and can be raised with but little difficulty. Her cost last year was £7000 stg. on sailing date, and she will be sold "al contado" as she lies, and without any "reclamo."

For any further details apply to the auctioneer, MAXIMO GOWLAND, Calle Bolivar 161.

Atencion!
El Domingo, 6 de Abril
A las 3 de la tarde.
El el pueblo de Bragado, hotel de Don Julian Goitia, procederemos á la venta al contado y á escriturar los bienes raices dentro de los 30 dias de todo lo que á continuacion se espresa de pertenencia de la testamentaria de D. Joaquin Aispuru, por acuerdo y orden terminante de sus herederos mayores de edad
Estancia Pozo Pampa—En 9 lotes uno de 100 cuadras y los demas de 100. A 3½ leguas del pueblo del Bragado y a una de la estacion Olascoaga.
Su estension es de 2025 hectareas ó sean 1200 cuadras le forma regular, campo flor, magnifico para ganaderia y superior para agricultura, siendo sus linderos: Jose Michat, centro agricola, Guillermo Dole, Ballesteros, Juan Carlos Martinez y otros
El lote de 100 cuadras tiene poblaciones, montes importantes etc. Tasacion $66 la hectarea, base las 2|3 partes, o sean $44 que es sumamente baja.
Este magnifico campo tiene un contrato firmado de arrendamiento, por el cual el ocupante debe entregarlo á vencimiento libre en absoluto de paja brava y vizcacha, faltando solamente dos años
Campo Martinez—A solo 10 cuadras de la estacion Olascoaga y 2½ leguas del Bragado. Su estension es de 1072½ hectareas ó sean 600 cuadras cuadradas de buen campo, ocupado actualmente por chacareros. Linda con Molinos, Martinez, Centro, Guillermo Doll y otros. Tasacion $43 l'ectarea ó sea ld ba o increible de 29 pesos.
Estancia El Picaso—Partido 9 de Julio entre las estaciones Olascoaga y Genebri; á solo 1 legua de esta, conocido en el reparto grafico por de Antonio Lanusse, perfectamente alambrado y con poblaciones de valor y montes. Se compone de 1350 hectareas de forma regular; siendo sus linderos Saturnino Unzué, Guillermo Denehi, (hoy C Saavedra Zavaleta) y Francisco Roth.
La tasacion de este riquisimo campo es de 40 á 50 pesos la hectarea, siendo la base la ultima suma de 27 pesos. Exigiremos sena de 5 o|o al firmar el boleto.
La situacion de estos campos, su clase especial y sus tasaciones bajisimas hechas de acuerdo entre los herederos para repartirse extrajudicialmente, escusan toda recomendacion.
